SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Gene ral Assembly of the State of Ohio, That the act entitled "an act incorporating the Bank of Ohio and Branches," passed at the present session of the general assembly, be and the same is hereby submitted to the electors of this State, at the general election to be held on the second Tuesday of October next, for their approval or rejection-and each elector may have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed upon his ticket the words "For the bank charter," or "Against the bank charter;" or words to that effect, and the judges of each election district, in counting out the votes, shall set down in separate columns, in the poll books, the votes given "For the Bank Charter," and the votes given "Against the Bank Charter," and certify the number of votes given for and against the charter, as they are required to certify the number of votes given for candidates. Secrion 2. It shall be the duty of the persons opening the poll books in each county, to make a separate abstract of votes given for, and against, the harter, including a statement showing the number of votes cast, which were neither for nor against the charter. And the clerk of the court of common pleas of each county shall immediately after such abstract is made, make a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, and forward the same by mail to the Governor at Columbus, marked on the outside, "Abstract of votes for and against bank charter, given in ____ County.'

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Governor, as soon after said election as practicable, with the aid of the Auditor or Secretary of State, to open and abstract all said returns; and the Governor shall, immediately thereafter, by proclamation in some newspaper published at Columbus, set forth the number of votes given for the charter, the number of votes given against the charter, and the number of votes given which were neither for nor against the charter; and if a majority of all the votes given were for the charter, he shall further state therein that said charter has been approved by the people, and has thereby become a law; but if a majority of all the votes given shall not be for the charter, he shall so state, and that the charter has, for that reason, failed to become a law. SECTION 4. That any Clerk who shall fail or neglect to make return to the Governor, as required in section two of use of the proper County, the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by notion in the name of the State.

SECTION 5. That the act of the present session entitled "an act to incorporate the bank of Ohio and branches,' shall be printed with the laws of this session of the general assembly N. H. VAN VORHES,

John G. Breslin-The fatal rock on which he went to wreek.

When John G. Breslin was elected Treasurer of State, he failed to carry into the discharge of his official duties the doctrines he had professed as a polof correcting the errors and abuses of his whig predecessors, he took them as his guide and example. It had been their habit to use the public money for the mutual advantage of themselves and their favorite corporations. Why should he deny himself of the same right?—
They had assumed to themselves the high prerogative of fostering and befriending Rail Roads, Banks and Insurance Companies by giving them the liberal use of the public money. They had thus won the favor and secured the eulogies of these institutions. Why his guide and example. It had been
